Subject (in full) Confidential letter No.372 from the Municipality of Greater Shanghai dated July 21, 1932 addressed to the Shanghai Municipal Council.

Made by D.I. Kuh Pao-hwa. Forwarded by DB Kuh. D.I.

With reference to the attached confidential letter No.372 from Mr. Yu Ong Kyuin, Chief Secretary of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai, dated July 21, 1932 addressed to the Shanghai Municipal Council on the subject of communist organizations, I have to report that careful enquiries have been made with the following result :-

(1) Preparatory Committee for the Shanghai Peoples Society to Support the North Eastern Volunteer Armies (上海民衆援助东北義勇軍後援會籌備會)

This Preparatory Committee is incorporated with the "Federation of Shanghai People to Oppose the Agreement to Cease Hostilities in Shanghai and to Support the Volunteer Armies in the North East", with offices at No.297 Wei Loh Li (會樂里), Yunnan Road. This Federation is known to the Police to harbour "Red" elements but owing to lack of evidence, no action has been taken. Following the arrest of 93 of its members and adherents by the Chinese Authorities on July 17, 1932 when they were holding a meeting of representatives of Anti-Imperialist organization in Kiangsu in the Kung Wu Tai Theatre, Robison Road, the office at No.297 Wei Loh Li has been practically deserted and the functioning of this organization appears to have reached a deadlock.

(2) Distressed Young Men's Anti-Japanese Mutual Aid Society (被難青年反日互助會), Ming Tan Middle School(鳴旦中学), Avenue Foch.

The Ming Tan Middle School has been occupying No.18 Kong Loh Tsung, Avenue Foch, for the past four months. During February 1932 when the school was located at No.357 Avenue Foch, the Distressed Young Men's Anti-Japanese Mutual Aid Society rented a room in the school but vacated it after one week, either removing to an unknown destination or being dissolved. The school itself is above suspicion because it is run by persons who are mostly respectable members of the Kuomintang. The institution is registered with the Educational Bureau of the Municipality of Greater Shanghai.

(3) Shanghai Peoples Anti-Imperialist League ([illegible]), Wei Mong Primary School ([illegible]), 1163 Wuting Road.

The above address was raided by the Municipal Police on the authority of a Shanghai Special District Court Warrant issued at the instance of the Public Safety Bureau on July [illegible], 1930 but nothing was found to show that this organization occupied an office in this building.

(4) Japanese Returned Students Association ([illegible]), Dah Loh Fong ([illegible]), Avenue Dubail.

On July [illegible], the French Police executed a search warrant issued by the 3rd Branch of the Kiangsu High Court at the request of the Shanghai Public Safety Bureau against the above association. Nothing of an incriminating nature was found and no arrests made.

(5) Shanghai Women's Anti-Imperialist League ([illegible])

This organization is better known as the "Chinese Women's Anti-Japanese and National Salvation League". It was formerly established at the Kwang Hwa Primary School ([illegible]), No.1267 Robison Road. This address was raided by the Municipal Police on March 7, 1932 and eleven persons found on the premises arrested and a large quantity of communist literature seized. Five of the accused were later sentenced to terms of imprisonment ranging from 1½ years to 4 months while the remainder released on

Since that time this society is reported to have been inactive.

The other organizations mentioned in the list do not maintain definite addresses and their activities if any are reported to be carried out in secret. The Shanghai Special District Court has issued a circular warrant for the arrest of four ringleaders of the Shanghai Western District Cotton Mill Workers' General Labour Union (中西区棉纱工会), the Municipal Electrical Workers' Union (市政电气工会), the Labour League (劳働大同盟) and the Modern Military Society (现代军人社) mentioned in the attached document (copy of circular warrant attached) and it is anticipated that further information may be secured should their apprehension be effected.

Wanted by the Shanghai Public Safety Bureau for being communists.

Translation of Confidential Letter No.372 dated July 21, 1932 from the Municipality of Greater Shanghai.

To the Shanghai Municipal Council.

According to a report received, Communists are at present very active in Shanghai. They organize certain societies etc. with a view to carrying on their activities secretly. These activities should be suppressed. Besides instructing those concerned to make investigations, a copy of a list of Communist organizations is forwarded herewith and you are requested to pay special attention to this matter and arrange to have investigations made with a view to suppressing them.

Yu Ong Kyuin,

Chief Secretary.

List of Communist Organizations

Shanghai Western District Cotton Mill Workers' General Labour Union(沪西纱厂总工会), address unknown. Principal member : Yao Ah Doo(姚阿大). This is a Red Labour Union and has branches at all Japanese owned mills.

Preparatory Committee for the Shanghai Peoples Society to Support the North Eastern Volunteer Armies(上海民衆援助东北義勇軍後援会準備会). Address unknown. This Committee has been formed ostensibly to support the North Eastern Volunteer Armies, but really to propagate communism.
